Tactical Opportunity

Big River forms are designed to encourage organizations to articulate the impact of a gift/membership at the point of transaction. This is in keeping with the message from premier marketing consultants and strategists regarding the need to engage and nurture each constituent in order to garner ongoing support. Big River is not a marketing or design firm, but our forms work best in tandem with great messaging and great branding.

For Marketing Consultants/Strategists – using the Big River platform to create transactional landing pages helps in two primary ways. First, the constituent experience you are creating via email, social media messaging, etc can be carried seamlessly to the transaction page. Second, you easily demonstrate conversion rates for campaigns by driving traffic to unique landing pages.
